THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.
The President Appoints Thursday,
November 28th.

By the President of the United States—A Proclamation.

The recurrence of that season at which it is the habit of our people to make devotion and public confession of their constant dependence on Divine favor for all good gifts of life and happiness, and of public peace and prosperity, as exhibited in the record of the year, the abundant crops for our gratitude and thanksgiving, the exuberant harvest, the productive mines, ample reasons for our gratitude and thanksgiving, the resources thus far furnished to our reviving industry and expanding commerce, and hastening the day when discord and distress through the length and breadth of the land will, under the continued favor of Providence, have given way to confidence and energy and assured prosperity; peace with all nations has remained unbroken; domestic tranquility has prevailed, and the institutions of liberty and justice which the wisdom and virtue of our fathers established, remain the glory and the defense of their children. The general prevalence of the blessings of heaven throughout our wide land has made more conspicuous the sufferings and sorrows which the dark shadow of pestilence has cast on a portion of our people. This heavy affliction even the Divine Ruler has tempered to the suffering communities by the universal sympathy and succor which have flowed to their relief, and the whole nation may rejoice in the unity of spirit in our people by which they cheerfully share one another's burdens.

Now, therefore, I, Rutherford B. Hayes, President of the United States, do appoint Thursday, the 28th day of November next, as a day of National thanksgiving and prayer, and I earnestly recommend that, withdrawing themselves from secular cares and labors, the people of the United States do meet together on that day in their respective places of worship, there to give thanks and praise to Almighty God for His mercies, and to devoutly beseech His continuance.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington, this 30th day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and the independence of the United States one hundred and third.

R. B. HAYES.

By the President,
WM. M. EVARTS, Secretary of State.

JOE RANKIN.
Among those who weep over the death of the Democratic party in Wisconsin, there are none whose tears are more scalding than those of Hon. Joe Rankin, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee. His anguish is intense; and he refused to be comforted. Joe was sanguine of a Democratic-Greenback victory, and to be kicked out of existence, is a humiliation impossible to be described. His appointment as Chairman two years ago, gave the Democracy much hope that his shrewdness and political generalship would lead the party to success in Wisconsin. He had a good many of the qualities which peculiarly fitted him for a Democratic Chairman. He was "in" with all the boys in the State. He had been around the Legislature several years, and got somewhat acquainted with the inside working of the Democratic machine. He was very approachable, had an army of warm friends, and headed the young blooded Democracy of the State. His great gentility and his remarkable energy, coupled with his supposed native shrewdness and his ability to manage a multiplicity of ropes all at the same time, gave him the Chairmanship of the Democratic State Central Committee. He lost the State last year, but claimed that Bragg gave the party away at Fond du Lac. But this year Joe started on a new deal, and assumed the responsibility of carrying the State for his party. His plan was to go on a still hunt, to coalesce with the Greenbackers, to make the latter take the front of the battle, while the Democrats were to keep pretty well in the background until the election day. After making a plan of the field, he visited all the more important points and arranged his forces. He came to Janesville early in the campaign, and was told by his lieutenants in the city, that the First District was sure to go for Parker, and that Republicans and honest money principles were in their death struggle in Rock county. Elated with this charming news, he hastened to Madison, and saw Romanza, and he and the Democrat boys told the Chairman that Dane county and the whole Second District would give a sweeping victory for the Democracy. Romanza was popular, and carried, so Joe thought, the whole of the Democratic party and half the young blood of the Republican party, in his pocket. He next surveyed the field in the Third District, and saw at once that Hazleton would get beaten. He told King that he might consider himself elected to Congress, as George would be cleaned out; whereupon King gave liberally of his ample means to his friends, and thought himself an M. C., and began to arrange his business preparatory to taking up his residence in the city of Washington. Joe spent a good deal of his time in the city of yellow bricks and lager beer, as that was the key to the situation. He favored Daester, because he was a German, and was neither hard nor soft on the money question, and because he could carry Milwaukee by 5,000 or 6,000 majority. The other Districts were manipulated pretty much in the same way as the First, Second, Third, and Fourth, and up to the evening of the 5th instant, the Democratic Chairman built his hopes upon a rousing victory.

Can any one imagine the state of mind of this young, dashing, ambitious Democratic politician, on Tuesday night when he began to receive the returns? The first District was overwhelming against Parker; the Second went back on the popular Romanza by increasing Caswell's majority to 2,500; young King was beaten in the Third; the astounding news was soon received that Milwaukee had gone Republican; Bragg's majority was greatly reduced; Bouck did not come up to his old majority; Humphrey and Pound were elected; the Legislature was carried by an immense majority by the Republicans; and in strong Democratic counties the Republicans made a clean sweep of nearly everything. These results have prostrated Joe Rankin, and the Democratic Committee acknowledge that the party is dead in Wisconsin.

Hon. Alexander Smith, Republican who was elected to succeed Clarkson N. Potter in the Twelfth New York District, died while receiving the news of his election. At first the news of his death was supposed to be a "joke" but it proved a sad reality.

CAPE MAY.

Terrible Conflagration.—The Entire Town Doomed to Destruction.

Special to the Gazette.
CAPE MAY, N. J., Nov. 9.—At 8 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the Ocean House, an immense frame structure, and which soon succumbed to the fiery demon. A fierce wind was raging at the time, and the flames soon reached the Atlantic House, and in an instant it was doomed to destruction. Congress hall came next, then the Avenue House, Fryer's large cottage, all other cottages, and bath houses, near the hotels were rapidly laid in ashes. At eleven o'clock, when the fire had done vast destruction, it seemed under control, but at one o'clock this afternoon the wind changed and the popular summer resort, Cape May, appears to be doomed to total destruction.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—Cape May is threatened with entire destruction, and much excitement prevails. Three steam engines left Camden at once for the rescue.

CAPE MAY, Nov. 9, 2 p. m.—The Columbia house is on fire at the East end, and also cottages on the North side of Jackson street. The high wind is driving the flames furiously up the best built portion of the city.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9—2 p. m.—The fire department has called out several steamers which will be taken to the Cape on a special train. The cottages which are burned are McCrary's, King's, Fryer's, Cahill's, Humphrey's, Miller's, Suelik's, McConnell's. There are eight hotels destroyed. The Columbia can't be saved.

STILL IN DOUBT.

The Republicans Claim Frisby's Election by Ten Votes.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 8.—There are further conflicting reports from some of the towns in Washington county, in this Congressional District, and, according to our count, Frisby, Republican, is elected over Duester, Democrat, by ten votes. The official canvass, which will be made next Tuesday, will be required to determine who is elected.

GOVERNOR HAMPTON.

He Jumps from the Hurricane Deck of a Haul and Breaks a Leg.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 5.—While Governor Hampton was hunting yesterday his mule became frightened, and the bridge breaking, the Governor leaped from his saddle. By the fall the Governor's right leg was broken in two places, the bones protruding, and his ankle was badly hurt.

THE OUTRAGES.

The Way the Democrats Conducted the Canvass in Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 8.—The Democrat has reports from the black parishes which, taken in connection with other information received by Republicans, shows the deep, damning, and heartless nature of the outrages perpetrated by the Democrats on the poor colored people during the canvass just closed. In other years the Democrats have had "carpet-baggers" and "United States troops" to stand in justification of their shotgun policy; but this year they are without a pretext of any kind, and they stand revealed before the world as men guilty of disfranchising a majority of the people of large sections of the State, and of resorting to whippings and cold-blooded murder to make their nefarious work effective. The terrors of Coushatta and Waterproof will not soon be forgotten, and they are the key to the true character of Southern Bourbon Democracy. The leaders set out to obtain a solid delegation in the next Congress, and they have obtained it. The order went forth from Washington that South Carolina and Louisiana must be added to the Democratic States, and so far as this State is concerned that order has been literally obeyed. Every Democratic candidate has been elected.

FOREIGN.

General Grant in Spain—Honors For Commissioner General McCormick.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The Herald correspondent at Seville telegraphs, under date of yesterday, as follows: "Ex-President Grant arrived here yesterday (Wednesday), and was received with great honor by the civil and military authorities of the city. The populace showed every mark of respect to the distinguished American, and the bearing of the officials was most cordial. General Grant will breakfast on Friday with the Duke de Montpensier, father of the late Queen Mercedes, and will embark at Cadiz for Gibraltar on Tuesday next."

The Herald correspondent in Paris reports that the presentation of the testimonial to Commissioner General McCormick by the American exhibitors at the Paris Exposition, which took place at his rooms in the Hotel Windsor on Wednesday, was a brilliant affair. The exhibitors offered Mr. McCormick their congratulations on the successful result of his labors and the impartial course he had pursued during the exhibition.

Mr. J. O. Woods delivered a complimentary address, and presented the Commissioner General with two superb pieces of bronzes, purchased for the purpose by the contributors at a cost of 8,000 francs.

Mr. McCormick replied, thanking the exhibitors for their kind appreciation of his labors, and felicitating them on the fact that they so creditably represented American industry and ingenuity at the great exhibition as to secure a larger proportion of prizes and other honors than the exhibitors of any other nation.

The ceremony terminated with a handsome collation.

The leading American residents of Paris have tendered Mr. McCormick a public dinner, which will probably be given at the Continental on the 26th inst.

FRIGHTFUL SUICIDE.

The Coldest Case of Suicide Ever Heard of.

LEETONIA, Ohio, Nov. 8.—Perhaps the coldest case of suicide occurred here this evening that has ever been heard of. As the West bound express on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Road was leaving this station, a fine looking man was seen to emerge from behind some cars on a siding and jump under the train, the two rear sleeping-cars running over him and cutting his head entirely off. Papers were found in his possession identifying him as J. St. John, also instructions to forward his remains to Worthy Ball, Kingsville, Ashtabula County, Ohio. A letter addressed to his daughter Fannie, telling her not to mourn for her dear but unfortunate papa, was found in a pocket. His appearance shows him to be about 35 years old.

CONTEMPT.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 8.—Josiah A. Noonan, a well known political writer of this city, and once interested in the publication of a granger organ in Chicago, was arrested to-day and taken to Racine, on an order to appear before a court there and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt.

THE ECLECTICS.

Meeting of the State Society at Watertown—An Interesting Session.

WATERTOWN, Nov. 8.—The delegates of the Eclectic State Medical Society of Wisconsin met at the Commercial Hotel in this city, pursuant to previous call, Wednesday, November 6, at 10 o'clock p. m. A permanent organization was perfected for the ensuing year with S. S. Judd, M. D., of Janesville, President; H. B. Laffin, M. D., of La Crosse, Vice President; F. A. Barber, M. D., of Watertown, Recording Secretary; C. C. Blanchard, M. D., of Delavan, Corresponding Secretary; M. N. Barber, M. D., of Watertown, Treasurer. Board of Examiners, C. C. Blanchard, M. D., of Delavan, H. D. B. Dustin, M. D., of Markesan, L. B. Laffin, M. D., of La Crosse, C. O. Jensen, M. D., Milwaukee, F. A. Barber, M. D., Watertown, S. S. Judd, M. D., Janesville.

Interesting discussions were held pertaining to the eclectic school of practice participated in by C. M. Poff, M. D., of Readstown, C. A. Culver, M. D., of Ontario, P. W. Blanchard, M. D., of Sharon, R. M. Stetson, M. D., Lima, S. S. Judd, M. D., Janesville, L. B. Laffin, M. D., La Crosse, Dr. F. A. Barber, M. D., Watertown, H. D. B. Dustin, M. D., Markesan, C. C. Blanchard, M. D., Delavan, C. O. Jensen, M. D., Milwaukee.

On motion a vote of thanks was tendered the proprietors of the Commercial Hotel for their gentlemanly conduct, and liberal courtesy extended to the members of the association during their stay. It was decided to hold the next meeting of the Society at Janesville, on the first Thursday in June, 1879.

Beware of Cheap Excitants.

And use, if you need a tonic stimulant and alternative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The liquors of commerce, even when they are not adulterated, fall to produce more than a temporary exhibition, usually followed by a depressing reaction, anything but beneficial to a weakly constitution. Not only do the potent botanic ingredients combined with the alcoholic of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters minister to the health and vigor of those who use it, but the basis—pure old rye, the finest and most salubrious liquor distilled, is no mean promoter of a healthful condition of the digestive organs. Its presence in the Bitters is essential to preserve their vegetable constituents from fermentation, and it unquestionably augments their remedial value. Few medicinal preparations of a proprietary nature have ever received such strong commendations from medical men.

How to Improve Flour.

It has long been known by experts that the keeping properties of flour may be greatly improved by the simple expedient of driving off a portion of the water present in freshly ground grain by means of heat. Indeed, this fact was once for all fully established by a series of experiments carried out under the direction of the eminent chemist, M. Payen, between 1850 and 1867, some of the samples of flour thus treated having been kept for now upwards of sixteen years, without undergoing the least deterioration of quality.

The greatest drawback to the general adoption of the system has hitherto been found in the want of suitable apparatus. But this difficulty has now been overcome, it appears. M. Toulouin having succeeded in perfecting a machine for the purpose, in which, it is stated, four metric centners of four per hour can be effectively heated at a trifling expense.

The Potato Prospect.

As we have predicted potatoes have advanced rapidly in price, and the prospect is that they will be worth $4 a barrel before spring, unless supplies are brought in from Nova Scotia. A great many farmers have not enough for their own tables half the winter. The season was very unfavorable for this crop, the early frost and weather of May injured the early plant, and the wet summer affected the vines of the later growing. They are rusty, something like the old-fashioned blight of nearly thirty years ago. The beetles were destructive, and altogether there will be according to present prospects, a scarcity

seventy houses have been built by contract at an aggregate cost of $60,000, and that the total property of the Indians is estimated at $250,000. The Indians are self-supporting, the only ration served by the government being three pounds of flour per week to each Indian scholar, and this is only a reward for regular and punctual attendance. There is an increased desire among the Indians to become United States citizens. Of 573 children between 6 and 17 years of age, only about one-fourth go to school. This is attributed to the distance apart of the school houses, and the indifference on the part of the parents. The agent finds it almost impossible to get crime against Indians punished, because of the prejudice existing against them.

Ingersoll on Blaine and Grant.

Colonel Ingersoll lectured recently in Buffalo, and was interviewed by the Express as follows: The political part of the interview was as follows:

Drifting on to the subject of politics, the inquiry was made "Who do you think Colonel, will be the Republican nominee for President in 1880?"

He replied: "I think Blaine ought to be, as he has acted in such a manly and chivalrous manner. He is not afflicted with the disease known as 'lofty sour.' He takes things like a philosopher. He knows he was defeated in Cincinnati because he did not have votes enough; but defeat never changed his principles."

"What do you think of Grant's proposed nomination?"

"I am for Blaine as against him. I think Grant the best soldier the Anglo-Saxon blood has produced, not excepting Marlborough or Wellington. He has reflected great credit on this country in Europe. His speech in England was manly and American to the last degree. The kings of Europe look very small beside him."

"Yes, but how do you regard his chances, provided he is nominated?"

"If nominated, he would carry every Northern State. I tell you why. The Republican party saved the country from chaos and will save it from disaster. The Democratic party were willing that the nation should be divided, and now they will be forced to advocate 'flat money.' The Republican party stands for Union and honor—for the payment of every dollar of indebtedness in gold and silver. The Democracy is forced to advocate soft money instead of hard or both."

"How do you regard Tilden's prospects for a re-nomination?"

"I believe Tilden has ciphered himself out. His chances can be mathematically expressed by this formula: Tilden=0."

"You assume, then, that he knew all about the telegrams?"

"I suppose he did, and thought them all right. He probably now wonders why the people are making such a fuss about them."

During the reporter's visit a well-known German journalist of Buffalo, called to make arrangements for the translation of Colonel Ingersoll's lectures to be published in this country and Germany.

Barreling Apples.

Nothing is gained by the frauds which are attempted to be practiced in the popular way of barreling apples—nice fair ones

at each end of the barrel and knotty, and well and indifferently mixed in the middle.

It has been practiced so long, that no one expects anything else. But if some one would put up honest barrels of apples, by sorting and carefully selecting, in a few years by branding, any fruit grower could establish such a reputation that his apples would command double price. The present way has become too thin a fraud to be longer practiced by any good man. The right way is to carefully sort those uniform

in size and quality, and place in clean new barrels carefully by hand; begin packing to the closed head of the barrel, then fill up without bruising the fruit; shake down thoroughly, and fill the barrel so full that the head must be pressed in with a lever, flattening the last tier of apples. The fruit must be pressed so firmly that it will not move in handling. After heading up, place the barrel in some cool, shaded position, there to remain until a danger of freezing; finally remove to a dry cellar,

fruit room, where a temperature just above freezing is maintained. Packed in this manner apples will keep soundly until the season of ripening arrives, when they should be consumed.— Iowa State Register.

THE GAZETTE.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1897.

HE DIDN'T SELL.

"I guess I'll sell the farm, Jane Ann, and buy a horse in town;

Jones made an offer yesterday—he'll pay the money down.

He said he wasn't anxious, but he had the cash

to spare.

And reminded me that nowadays cash sales are very rare.

The farm ain't worth much, anyway, the soil is mighty thin.

And the crops it yields is hardly worth the puttin'

of them.

Besides that pesky railroad that're puttin'

thru this way.

Will cut the old place in two—Jones told me

very sure.

I ain't afraid to work, you know—my daddy always said,

"There ain't a single lazy hair in Nebemiah's head."

There wasn't no lazy hairs, I know, in that old head of his.

For he did the work of three hired men in spite of rheumatiz!

No, no, I'm not afraid to work—that I don't complain.

I've tried to work with willin' hands, in sunshine

and in rain;

And I've always been a cheerful face, except at times, maybe.

When them giddy, headstrong steers o' mine

would 'baw' when I yelled 'cut!'

Perhaps it may be sinful for a mortal to find fault.

With toiling hard both day and night, if he only

But I've thought while cradlin' rain-lodged oats

on the outside over there.

That man's been almost too hefty for a small-bodied man to bear.

It's always been my custom, when plowin' stumpy soil

To hum some good old-fashioned hymn—it sorter

soothes my soul.

But I tell you what, 'twas pretty hard to smother

the words of sin

When a spring root would break and whack me

on the shins.

I mention these 'ere things, Jane Ann, because

I'd like to lead

A peaceful, blameless kind of life, from all tem-pestations freed.

But long as Hessian flies exist and later-bugs

around

There'll be some tall profanity at times an' sinners!

So now, if you're agreed, Jane Ann, I'll sell the farm to Jones.

He'll find what it lacks in soil is well made up in stones.

And we'll move into the town next week—what's that you're saying, wife?

"You'll never leave the good old place as long as you live."

Well, then it goes again, I vum! Go on, and have your way.

You're bound to wear the breeches—in a figurative way.

Be so sure I'll have my way this time, old girl, as well as you.

So, if you're bound to stay right here, by grace—'I'll stay, too!"

FARM NOTES.

The wine growing interest of California

yields fully $500,000 annually to the revenue of that State.

The great corn crop of Southwestern

Iowa is drawing large numbers of cattle

there to be fattened during the winter.

Peanut oil is being shipped from North Carolina to Italy. Cotton seed oil also goes to the same country, where it is rapidly taking the place of olive oil.

A leading cotton raiser of Hale county,

Alabama, has introduced upon his plantation 1,000 English sparrows, in the hope that they will prove effectual destroyers of the cotton-worm.

Japan is the only country in the world in which gentlemen are not farmers. The farmers there are very small, and are worked entirely by hand. On most of them no animals are kept.

Think of what an agricultural fair must be in California, with cabbages five feet in circumference, pumpkins weighing a hundred pounds, cucumbers a yard long, and peaches and pears as large as your head.

Best quality of Baldwin apples are worth only $1 per barrel, in Maine—and this includes ship and barrel. Corn is 6 cents per bushel at Virden, Illinois, and hay $6 and $7 a ton at Dubuque, Iowa.

The famous canvas-back ducks of Chesapeake Bay derive their peculiar flavor

from the wild celery on which they feed, and a poultry raiser, taking a hint from the fact, has tried feeding garden celery

to domestic ducks for a week or two before killing them, with the result of greatly improving their flavor.

A stallion owned by Daniel D. Bell of Rochester, New York, which died a few days ago, had reached the remarkable age

for a horse, of 45 years and 6 months.

His name was Guano, and in his day he was a noted animal. Mr. Bell had owned him for twenty-seven years and a half.

He retained a remarkable vitality to the last.

A Minnesota farmer being greatly annoyed

by the ravages perpetrated in his garden

by a number of mice, consulted the Town

Supervisor as to what he should do.

"Shoot 'em—that's what you ought to do,"

said the Supervisor. A few days after the plugs appeared, when the farmer proceeded to "shoot 'em" to the number of six good sized grunts. When the ownership of the plugs was ascertained, it was found that they all belonged to the farmer himself.

But he thus got rid of the nuisance.

There is no particular reason why a cow that keeps easy is worth any more than that quality. The cow that eats the most, and as a result, gives the most milk, is the paying animal. It pays to feed all that animals will eat and assimilate. This is the season when bran and meal are given to supplement the shorned pasture. It is well to remember that the best fatting

while bran is milk-producing. A mixture of the two is excellent for cows that are fattening, while at the same time the owner desires to get a good lot of milk.

The feeding of Texas steers at distilleries is becoming quite common; 3,500 are being fed at a distillery in Terre Haute, Ind.

One distillery at Riverport feeds 3,000.

One among the first successful attempts at fattening Texas steers in stables was made at the best sugar factory at Chatsworth,

Ill., in 1868-69. During that winter 450

head were fattened, and sold in New York at the top of the then market. They were put in in October, and from that time until April remained in the stable, receiving their feed, water and all necessary care.

After the first three weeks they took kindly to the situation, but it was found that strangers must not be admitted to the stables. It would excite them and turn them off their feed for a time.—Prairie

Farmer.

Butter Making on the Farm.

If the increased market value of choice

butter were better known and appreciated

by those who make butter to sell, methinks

more care would be given to making good butter, and more money would be made.

The bulk of butter in this country is supplied by the farmers who keep a few cows,

but out of the large amount from this source much of it does not bring the highest price, because it is not in an attractive marketable condition; while the creamery and dairy butter always brings the top of the market, because it is put up in an attractive shape, is made in the latest improved way in perfect cleanliness, is perfectly uniform, hard and cold, with all the buttermilk worked out, it will keep well

—Few arrests.
—Bad weather for looters.
—The criminal calendar will be called next Monday.
—The Temple of Honor installed its officers last night.
—Next week is set aside for prayers for young men by the churches.
—The Circuit Court hasn't unearthed anything of sensational interest yet.
—The criminal trials will commence next Thursday in the Circuit Court.
—Copacutia Society will give a dance at their hall on Tuesday evening November 12.
—The St. Patrick's Temperance Band will give a dance Friday night, November 15.
—The debris of the buildings lately burned on West Milwaukee street is being removed.
—A stray pocketbook containing a small amount of change, is waiting at the Gazette office for an owner.
—Remember that Dr. O'Leary commences his lecture course with a free talk at the Opera house Monday evening.
—The militiamen are going in for clothes, and all the public spirited citizens should help them along in the enterprise.
—In the Circuit Court to-day a decision was reached in the case of Shearer vs. Butler, giving the plaintiff a judgment of $20.
—Alderman McKinney is clearing up the ruins preparatory to building a new barn in place of the one that was lately burned.
—The train for Milwaukee, heretofore leaving at 12:05 p. m., will leave at 12:45 p. m. on and after Monday, November 11th 1918.
—A number of our citizens have gone into the banking business at home. It's a good way to keep the cold out of the house and save fuel.
—The Eclectic State Medical Society of Wisconsin has decided to hold its next meeting in this city, on the first Thursday in June 1919.
—Remember that all the churches have changed their time table, and that to-morrow evening the services will commence at 7 o'clock. Don't forget or you'll be late.
—The building lately erected next to the postoffice is to be enlarged by the building of an addition on the rear, twenty-two by sixty feet. It will be sheathed with iron.
—Miss Lizzie Gould, of this city, starts to-day for Spring Valley to take charge of the school there for the winter term. Her sister, Miss T. Maud Gould, is to teach near the Rock river house.
—Charlie Penniman, whose crayonings have attracted considerable attention among lovers of art, has just completed a fine portrait of Mr. P. Albee, which is now on exhibition at Wall King's.
—Nothing of public interest was transacted at the meeting of the Boat Club this year. The Club only had one race this season. Financially it is prosperous having enough wealth to more than pay its bills.
—George Erwin was before Justice Prichard, yesterday, charged with having picked up the pocket-book and $85 lost by Mrs. Clitty, and failing to return the same. The case was adjourned until next week.
—"Diabolo, the Fire King," whose other name is Moody, and who has been with Burr Robbins this season, has been engaged by the London show to travel with them this winter through the South. He left this afternoon.
—Captain Baker, of the Veterans, received word this afternoon, couched in all the necessary military terms to make it binding, that Adjutant General Bryant had authorized General George E. Bryant to inspect the Veterans and Guards next Tuesday. Gen. Bryant will arrive on the afternoon train, and the inspection will take place in the evening.
—To-day Fisher's road scraper was at work on Milton avenue. About 100 rods of road were ploughed up for the machine to work on. There seems to be considerable diversity of opinion among those who have witnessed its workings, as to its practicability, but when the work is completed it may convince all of its merits. At present there is much doubt.
—About 2 o'clock last night a young man giving his name as Osborn received three bad scalp wounds in a fight which took place in the vicinity of the Corn Exchange. Two of the wounds were quite serious, the scalp being cut through to the bone, and the third was not as deep. It is said that they were caused by steel knuckles used by his assailant. The affair has been kept as quiet as possible, and no arrests will probably ensue.
—The Burlington Hawkeye is one of the sprightliest and newest papers which ever came from the press, and is daily growing more and more popular. Its subscribers are on the increase rapidly, and special inducements are offered to canvassers. It is full of fun and facts, and every page has some rich treat for the reader. All who get acquainted with it stick by it closer than brothers, and its friends are growing more and more numerous. Particulars about the premiums offered etc., can be gained by addressing the Hawkeye.
—There was a large audience at the Congregational church last night to see the pictures there presented by a magic lantern apparatus. It was in some respects a pleasing entertainment. There was nothing in it which was objectionable as far as judging by moral principles, but there was nothing in it to merit the praise which has been given it by some who have seen it in other places. Perhaps it was a bad night for the show, and perhaps the light didn't work nicely, but whatever was the cause the audience was rather disappointed. There was not the first essential of art in the entertainment, and some of the views were such as would do little credit to any public exhibitor. Others were fair, and the little folk were delighted by some comicalities which called forth roars from the front seats, but as a whole the entertainment was not such as could gain favor in this city. The lecture was a running commentary on the scenes presented, and was of about equal merit with the rest of the show.

CORRECTED COUNT.

The Result of the Election According to the Official Figures.
Yesterday afternoon the County Board of Canvassers met at the office of the County Clerk and counted the vote. The Board consisted of County Clerk Morgan, Supervisor E. K. Felt, of Newark, and Justice Balch of this city. As there have been more or less errors in all the reports thus far published we give the official figures, which differ a little from all of those yet given to the public.

MORE ABOUT WATER-WORKS.

The city of Appleton, in the northern part of the State, is now passing through the harrowing experience of trying to get water-works, and a few facts concerning the matter there will prove of interest to those who are discussing the same question here. It appears that Carpenter & Co., the contractors and proprietors of the gas works there, have made overtures for the construction of water-works, and will soon lay a definite proposition before the Council of that city. Carpenter & Co. propose to construct works which will have a capacity sufficient to meet the demands of a city of 25,000 inhabitants. They propose to put in six miles of pipe. The exclusive right shall be given them by the city to furnish water in this way for a period of years. The city is to contract for the use of sixty hydrants for which it shall pay $5,000 a year. These are the chief points in the informal proposal now under discussion, and it seems to be meeting with great favor according to the Appleton Post which says: "The subject has already been considerably discussed by our leading business men and property owners, and so far as we know, they are inclined to endorse the movement. This was to be expected as the forthcoming proposition cannot be regarded in any other light than favorable to our city." It will be noticed that the proposition is by no means as favorable as that which is now before the Council here, by which it is proposed to lay 12 miles of pipe, and furnish 125 hydrants for $7,000 yearly, besides guaranteeing pure, healthful water for domestic use.
Another family loose three children by a lamp accident.
The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 33 degrees above zero and at 2 o'clock this afternoon at 50 degrees above. Clear. One year ago today at corresponding hours the thermometer stood at 26 and 30 degrees above.
The indications to-day are for the upper lake region and upper Mississippi valley, clear or partly cloudy weather, cold northerly winds, backing to warmer southerly and generally lower pressure.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 33 degrees above zero and at 2 o'clock this afternoon at 50 degrees above. Clear. One year ago today at corresponding hours the thermometer stood at 26 and 30 degrees above.
The indications to-day are for the upper lake region and upper Mississippi valley, clear or partly cloudy weather, cold northerly winds, backing to warmer southerly and generally lower pressure.

PROF. SEVERANCE IS COMING.

Prof. A. B. Severance will open his dancing school in Lappin's hall, next Wednesday evening. The children's class is to be formed at 5 o'clock p. m., and the class for ladies and gents at 8 o'clock in the evening. The terms will be the same as last year, they being for the children's class $3 for 12 lessons, and for the ladies' and gents' class $5. Other particulars can be learned by applying to Prof. Severance at the hall.
The young people have been looking forward with pleasure to the reopening of this school, and the indications are that the attendance will be larger than during any previous season.

THE WEEK OF PRAYER.

The second Sunday in November and the week following has been set apart by the National Executive Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, as a time for special prayer for young men and Young Men's Christian Associations and in accordance with this recommendation and their custom for many years, the Janesville Association will observe the day and week by special efforts in their regular meetings. Rev. Mr. Sewell will lead the first meeting and other pastors will be invited to lead the regular daily meetings through the week, commencing at 9 o'clock each morning. All who can spare a few minutes from their busy cares are invited to come in. The room will be warm and comfortable.
The topics for the week are:
Sunday—"Exhortation to young men."
Monday—"Young Men—Their power for evil."
Tuesday—"Young Men—Their power for good."
Wednesday—"Something stronger than the strength of young men."
Thursday—"How to reach young men."
Friday—"Young men, their special temptation."
Saturday—"The pattern for young men."
During the year the Association has organized 24 new railroad associations, and in the South the associations have grown from 3 to nearly 175 associations, and other branches of the work have been likewise prosperous.

SACRED SUBJECTS.

The Services of the Sanctuary for Sunday.
The following notices of church services to-morrow are given for the guidance of the public in general and the pious in particular:
Presbyterian Church.—On Jackson street, Rev. J. W. Sanderson, Pastor. Services 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.
The pastor being absent, Rev. H. Pullan will occupy the pulpit in the morning and will preach on "The Temptation of Christ," with the lesson especially for the youth.
Y. M. C. A.—Meeting 9 o'clock every morning (except Sabbath). Regular Sabbath afternoon meeting at 3:00. All are welcome.
Regular meeting to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, led by Rev. Mr. Sewell, President of the State Young Men's Christian Association convention which met at Whitewater last week. Subject—"Exhortation to young men." Young men especially invited.

Methodist Episcopal Church.—Corner of Jackson and Center streets. Rev. B. Sawatz, Pastor. (Residence, corner of Terrace and Center streets, 7:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Sunday school at 12 M. Prayer-meetings Tuesday and Thursday evenings.
The pulpit will be occupied to-morrow morning by Rev. R. W. Bosworth, of Boulder City, Colorado. There will be no service in the evening, as this church and the Congregational will unite in the Bible Society Anniversary at the Congregational church.

Court Street M. E. Church.—(Corner of Main and Court streets. Rev. HENRY FAIVLE, Pastor. Residence High, corner of Ravine. Services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Subject of morning discourse—"Helps to Christian Growth." Union Bible Meeting at the Congregational church in the evening.

Christ Church.—On Court street. Rev. A. R. Rector. Services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.
The rector will preach in the morning on "The Refuge of Souls," and in the evening on "Mohammedanism."

Baptist Church.—Corner of Jackson and Pleasant streets. Rev. F. L. Chapel, Pastor. Services at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Sunday school at 12 M. Prayer-meetings on Thursday evenings at 8:00 o'clock.

MORMONISM.

An Appeal By the Christian Women of Utah to the Women of the United States.
SALL LAKE, Nov. 7.—The following was adopted at a meeting of the non-Mormon women of this city:
To Mrs. Rutherford B. Hayes and the Women of the United States: It is more than 30 years since polygamy was planted on the shores of Great Salt Lake. During these years Congress has utterly failed to enact efficient or enforce existing laws for the abolition of this great crime, and we believe that more of these unlawful and unwholesome alliances have been consummated the past year than ever before in the history of the Mormon church. Endowment houses, under the name of temples, are being erected in different parts of the territory, costing millions. It is impossible to ascertain the exact number of polygamous marriages, for they are concealed in these endowment houses, an institution no Gentile is permitted to enter, where brotherhood and sisterhood are sealed and bound by oaths so strong, that even apostates will not reveal them, and to mention which witnesses on the witness stand unblushingly perjure themselves, and on the jury violate all considerations of oath and duty. Considering all our surroundings, polygamy has never taken such degrading and debasing form in any nation or among any people above the conditions of barbarism as in Utah. It is degrading to man and woman, a curse to children and destructive to the sacred relations of family upon which the civilization of nations depend, and there are things that cannot be repeated or printed that reduce the system to the lowest form of indecency. That it should be practiced in the name of God, and under the name of religion, and an apostle polygamist, with four acknowledged wives, is permitted to sit in Congress, only adds to the enormity of the crime, and makes it more revolting to our common Christian principles. Our Legislature is composed almost entirely of polygamists and members of the Mormon priesthood, and they have thrown around polygamy every possible shield of power, and a light of power has been abolished to break down the distinction between lawful wife and concubine. The Mormons are rapidly extending their settlements into Arizona, Idaho, New Mexico and Wyoming. They have the balance of power in two territories, and are without doubt plotting for it in others. We call upon the Christian women of the United States to join us in urging Congress to empower the courts to arrest the further progress of this evil and to delay the admittance of Utah into statehood until this is accomplished. And we ask you to circulate and publish our appeal, in order to arouse public sentiment which would be against an abomination that particularly oppresses and stigmatizes woman. It is our purpose to ask names for a petition designed for Congress, and we hope, also, that every minister of the gospel will commend it to the women of his congregation, and that all Christian associations will do what they can to obtain signatures. With the cordial co-operation and concerted action of the Christian women of our land we may confidently hope that the great sin of polygamy may be abolished.

An Inevitable Officeholder.

From the St. Albans (Vt.) Messenger.
General George W. Grandey, of Vergennes, has held the office of justice of the peace 42 consecutive years; mayor of Vergennes, 12 years; county superintendent, 2 years; city attorney, 9 years; representative in general assembly, 12 years; speaker of house of representatives, 5 years, and also at the extra session of 1897; state senator two years; quartermaster general, 7 years; state attorney, 2 years; member of the state board of education, 3 years; presidential elector and chairman of electoral college in 1868; delegate at large to national republican convention in 1872; chairman of the republican state committee during the last three presidential campaigns, and the past five years he has been national bank examiner for Vermont. General Grandey has been attorney at law thirty-eight years, and president of the Addison County Bar Association during the last fifteen years.

Let Him Sue to Get His Money Back.

From the Chicago Daily News.
Let us look at it a moment. Charley Kern paid—we will say $5,000—probably more, but we will say $5,000—to Wilbur F. Storey of the Chicago Times, for the influence of the Times in the campaign just closed. No sooner had the money been paid over than Storey commenced a bitter warfare upon the character of Kern, which Kern depended for his election. Now, the point we wish to raise is this: Cannot Charley Kern recover his $5,000, or whatever the amount paid over was, on the ground that Wilbur F. Storey received the money under false pretenses; or if not this, on the ground that Storey violated his contract by knowingly injuring the prospects of the party of the second part? Charley Kern is not as well off as he was before the election, and we throw this suggestion out that he may be able to recover some of the money which he has thrown away.

ROBBED.

LA CROSSE, Nov. 8.—Last night, at North Station, on the Northwestern Road, near Sparta, a middle aged German, named Schultz, who had been bargaining for some land at Norwalk and had with him $50 with which to make his first payment, was assaulted and knocked down with a blilly and robbed. He was picked up in an insensible condition, and it is reported his injuries will result fatally.

An Undeniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable, unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse for you,—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning, will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual constiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, etc. Its sales show every town on the Western Continent, and not a drugist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can buy a Sample Bottle for 10 cents. Three doses will relieve you.

DO YOU GIVE IT UP?
If a Firm advertise that they have the Largest and Most Elegantly Fitted up Store in the City when there is one within a stone's throw that is to their concern as a genuine diamond compared to an ordinary piece of glass; if the same firm publicly claims the Largest Stock of Goods in the City, when within a block can be found two stocks not only larger in quantity but much superior in quality; if a firm advertises that they sell goods at one price and deal squarely with the people, when on the contrary no offer is refused, and there is no selling price on the goods, so that no two persons buying at different times pay alike for the same goods; if a firm advertises all wool suits for $3.50 when any novice in the business knows that new goods of that description cannot be purchased in one hundred thousand lots at $5.00 a suit; if a firm makes these absurd statements in a newspaper which any fair-minded person will recognize as UNTRUTHS; what kind of a show would a buyer unacquainted with the quality and value of goods have, trading with such people in a DARK STORE? We leave this matter to your kind consideration, hoping that you will give careful thought to the subject of SQUARE DEALING vs. JEWING. The former has been identified with the senior member of our firm in Janesville for 30 years. The latter you can get in large doses at any of the other stores.
